

Hey babe are you there?
Let's have a play!

Ok...

I bring you food on a droplet in the air

I throw you keys
from the balcony

Your hand feels like a glove upon my cheek

we both intoxicated
with the malady ...

Wait! Is this a Romeo &
Juliet story?

Yup! But with a tweak

Shall I just speak from memory?

Yep, we don't need fiction anymore

So...Our dates happen in the hospital!

My second home! Travel bag always ready by the door...

You are obsessed with bathrooms, water, soaps

those little virus protectors!

I am your personal driver to appointments and tests

TEST, TEST, TEST that there hasn't been a relapse

We have a protocol for how to keep distance and make love

...to release the tension, sort of...

You ask me to wipe your bottom

Then you cheat on me

What does it matter in the scheme of things?!

Nothing, of course,
no laws apply in our microcosm

Why are you so negative?
I feel this sudden heat on your right

I feel this sudden cold of the universe on the left

So we are like a half-moon, isn't this perfect?

Doppler effect.!

?? What are you
talkin about?

Shakespeare would be proud..
